

State Water Resources Control Board
Resolution No. 73-44

Memorializing

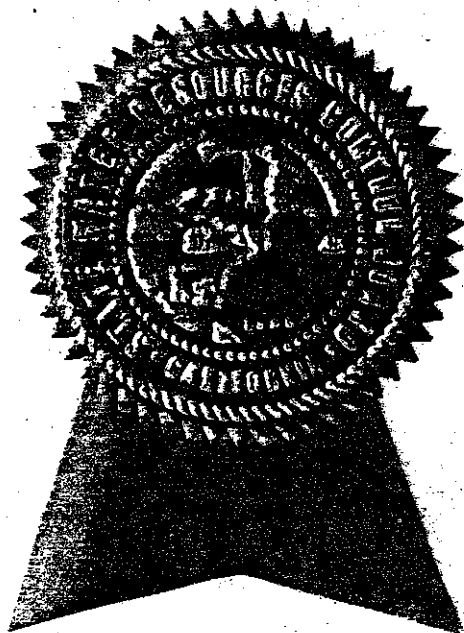

William Kenneth Norris

WHEREAS, WILLIAM KENNETH NORRIS made significant contributions to the effort to clean up water pollution through his service as representative for the California Association of Sanitation Agencies, and

WHEREAS, He played a key role in obtaining legislative approval for the 1974 Clean Water Bond Act and numerous other environmental measures, and

WHEREAS, His death at age 52 deprives California of an important and valuable leader in the effort to build the legislative mandate and intergovernmental cooperation necessary for environmental progress, now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the State Water Resources Control Board expresses its recognition and appreciation for the public spirited efforts of WILLIAM KENNETH NORRIS and offers its condolences to his wife, Mary, and his four daughters for the untimely loss of this outstanding citizen.
