

Fines are well and good, and unfortunately necessary, as so many just don't care. I have been conserving water for at least 30 years.

But I am extremely concerned that all the water that 'Fracking' corporate entities are usurping and destroying for all time and eternity is not taken into account before punishing the real humans, in this drought stricken state. Please do not separate these issues.

Ms Michael Allen

PO Box 1004

Petaluma, CA 94953

www.bravenewworldgallery.com