

commentletters

From: Craig Koch <cskochmd@gmail.com>
Sent: Wednesday, January 27, 2016 7:09 PM
To: commentletters
Subject: Drought Water Restrictions

I feel that drought related water restrictions should be left in place. You will face pressure to ease them. However, increasing population density is inevitable, and decreasing reserves a definite possibility. The public needs to understand that water is a limited resource and temporary improvements are not a green light to continue past wasteful practices.

Craig Koch, MD
cskochmd@gmail.com