Background

California has had an increase in wildfire intensity and frequency in recent years due to drought, tree mortality due to pests, climate change, fuel accumulation, and long-term fire suppression. One of the drivers of wildfire in California has been ignition sources associated with the electrical power grid. The California Legislature passed Senate Bill (SB) 901 on August 31, 2018, which imposed additional requirements on for wildfire mitigation plans developed by utilities.

This General Order covers electric utility company wildfire risk mitigation, response, and cleanup activities listed in the Project Description that discharge or propose to discharge waste that could affect the quality of the waters of the state. The General Order also covers electric utility infrastructure operations and maintenance activities listed in the Project Description that are not directly related to wildfire that discharge or propose to discharge waste that could affect the quality of waters of the state because such activities have similar potential effects on water quality. This General Order is both (1) a Clean Water Act section 401 Certification and Waste Discharge Requirements (WDR) for projects that include the discharge of dredged or fill material, and (2) Waste Discharge Requirements for projects that discharge or propose to discharge waste, other than dredged or fill material, that could affect the quality of surface waters of the state.

The General Order would provide an expedited process for permit coverage of utility activities to support essential wildfire prevention and mitigation activities and operations and maintenance activities, while protecting water quality.
