

From: kosmo [mailto:kosmosinu@gmail.com]

Sent: Thursday, March 17, 2016 4:37 PM

To: Satkowski, Rich@Waterboards

Subject: EIR/ research solutions analysis studies to save and preserve fish population.

"Independent Energy Effort Action Call to serve, preserve and save Our One Full Cycle Water Flow" NK

Application for an Environmental effects impact report and negative declaration recommended adaptation.

Initial studies in significant direct physical change on the environment with Current analysis on extreme temperature changes on existing conditions and effect on water quality, health and safety inhabitants, social and economical threats.

Conclusion urgent actions to adopt unavoidable further climates effects

1)To protect and save ecological system Mitigation action requiring.

Immediate update Clean water act, Restoration and Rehabilitation in Sacramento and American Rivers, protect designated area by prohibiting unrecognized all activities along the shore with establishing buffer zone.

2)to adopt order "Elimination and Threatened species disappearance) substantially restrict and prohibit fishing activities at-least in Sacramento and American rivers - recommended in all Ca Rivers.

•The cause and Effect • More Challenge May be Met•

Full draft comprehensive report with further monitoring evidences are available for immediate adaptation.

March 17,2016

prepared by Nazar Kosmo

We are Water

We are looking forward to attention tomorrow workshop at the EPA headquarters.