

Comment Letters

-----Original Message-----

From: Ron Lindemann [mailto:ronlindemann@me.com]

Sent: Sunday, January 03, 2016 8:15 AM

To: Frevert, Kathy@Waterboards

Subject: Comment drought extension

Good morning,

I believe the current drought restrictions should be lifted, not extended. We all know that agriculture is consuming 90% of the water in California yet they have no restrictions. Our glorious management in Sacramento has done nothing to create new water storage infrastructure in over 45 years. Forget the stupid high speed rail and build new water storage infrastructure and get the agricultural business to conserve or pay their fair share.

Ron Lindemann