

Please reconsider the restrictions to be imposed on agricultures uses on San Diego County, we have stump trees, we have removed trees, we have improved the watering practices, but to expect another saving of 35%on water usage is unfair to us small farmers in San Diego County, do consider our circumstances

Thank you for your attention.

Rosa Peraro