

California Sportfishing Protection Alliance
"An Advocate for Fisheries, Habitat and Water Quality" www.calsport.org

Chris Shutes
1608 Francisco St.
Berkeley, CA, 94703
blancapaloma@msn.com

March 2006 – Present: FERC Projects Director, California Sportfishing Protection Alliance. Member, Steering Committee, California Hydropower Reform Coalition. Member, Foothills Water Network.

American River watershed experience:

- Signatory on behalf of CSPA, Upper American River Project and Chili Bar Project Settlement Agreement, January, 2007. UARP/Chili Bar relicensing participant, 2003-2007. Principal non-agency representative of fishing interests. Thorough familiarity with project hydrology and operation, including HecResSim water balance model.
- Member, on behalf of CHRC, El Dorado Project Ecological Resources Committee. El Dorado relicensing participant (unaffiliated), 1999-2003. Principal non-agency representative of stream fishing interests. Thorough understanding of project hydrology and operation, including Oasis water balance model. Thirty year fisherman in project-affected waters.
- Ten year advocate, El Dorado County water issues, including water supply and water rights.
- Working knowledge, City of Sacramento and Sacramento County water supply, including water rights history.
- Current participant, Yuba-Bear/Drum Spaulding joint relicensing. Gaining understanding of project hydrology and Placer County and Nevada County water supply.
- Occasional consultant with angling, whitewater and conservation interests, Placer County Water Agency Middle Fork American relicensing. Working knowledge of project features.
- Occasional angler since 1980, Lower American River.

Other relevant experience (hydro):

- Representative of CSPA on four hydro projects, Feather River and North Fork Feather River.
- CSPA relicensing participant, DeSabra –Centerville Project, Butte Creek and West Branch Feather River
- CSPA representative, license implementation, New Don Pedro Project, Tuolumne River.