

Please do not sell water from our local rivers! We are farmers in this farming community and in this year of water shortages, we will need every drop. It is foolish to sell our most valuable resource.....California and these valley communities produce 80% of the world's food supply. Do not destroy our food production abilities for a few dollars and a short sighted plan.

Alice Miller
700 Barringham Lane, Modesto Ca. 95350
farming in Merced County