

Hi i just want to express my outrage over the water boards decision to try to divert even more water before it even reaches the delta as a recreational fisherman i can see the results when too much water is diverted away from fish and wildlife poor fishing mean little or no tax dollars going into our state coffers thanks ahead Ray Yee

Sent from my iPhone