

Measuring head on a weir. Measure upstream from downward curve of the water surface.

Figure from "Measuring Irrigation Water, Circular 473", by the University of California Division of Agricultural Sciences, January 1959.