

It is totally unfair for the Water Resources Control Board to impose these restrictions on a group of people who has done more to be responsible consumers of water than anyone in the state. We are down to a per capita consumption rate of 75 gallons per day. Until a viable alternative to the Cal Am water source is in place, this is an unnecessarily punitive step for this entire population and its economy.

Thanks,

Carmel Homeowner, Craig and Sandra Thush

