

Professional Resume of Charles Toeniskoetter

Education

Chuck received a bachelor's degree in mechanical engineering from the University of Notre Dame in 1967 and an M.B.A. from Stanford University in 1973. He served as an officer in the Marine Corps from 1967 to 1970, including a tour in Vietnam, and completed his service as a Captain and Company Commander at Camp Pendleton, California. From 1973 to 1975, he was a management consultant for McKinsey & Company in the San Francisco office.

Representative Experience

Chuck co-founded Toeniskoetter & Breeding, Inc. Construction and Toeniskoetter & Breeding, Inc. Development in 1983 after serving as Vice President and a member of the Board of Directors of the Carl N. Swenson Co., a leading San Jose construction and development company. The business philosophy was, and is, to provide high-quality facilities and to develop facilities of enduring design, materials, and value. Over the years, Toeniskoetter & Breeding, Inc. has received more than 30 awards for excellence. Professional achievements range from the restoration of San Jose's St. Joseph Cathedral to the renovation of Hewlett Packard's World headquarters. Chuck's education and experience allows him to identify and develop economically viable projects.

Public Service

Toeniskoetter & Breeding, Inc. has long been associated with community service, and Chuck has held leadership positions in numerous civic, charitable and professional organizations. Current volunteer work includes the University of Notre Dame School of Architecture Advisory Council, Downtown San Jose Rotary Club and the Stroke Awareness Foundation, of which he was a co-founder. Community recognition includes Junior Achievement Business Hall of Fame, Boy Scouts Distinguished Citizens Award, San Jose Chamber of Commerce Community Leadership Award, 100 Fastest Growing Companies in Silicon Valley and Silicon Valley Business Journal's Entrepreneur of the Year with Dan Breeding. Chuck is a member of the Board of Directors of three publicly traded companies, SJW Corp. (San Jose Water Co.), and Redwood Trust, Inc.—both New York Stock Exchange Companies—and Heritage Commerce Corp., a NASDAQ company.
