

SUMMARY OF PROFESSIONAL QUALIFICATIONS OF

Teresa Geimer

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Science in Civil Engineering, June 1983, University of California, Irvine

PROFESSIONAL

Registered Professional Engineer in California, Civil No. C 42145

CURRENT EXPERIENCE

Chief of Water Supply and Transfers Branch: duties include managing the Department of Water Resources' (DWR) participation in the Environmental Water Account program; implementing the yearly Dry Year program if needed to augment water supplies for water districts and agencies, and/or individuals of California; managing and coordinating other agencies participation in the Arroyo Pasajero program; and monitoring water right hearings.

PREVIOUS EXPERIENCE

Twenty-one years of water resources engineering experience, including modeling the Bear River, investigating set-back levees in the Delta, designing facilities at the Kern Water Bank, planning for the Los Banos Grandes Reservoir, tracking water deliveries from the State Water Project (SWP), and negotiating and implementing various contracts from SWP settlement contracts to purchasing water contracts for SWP and non-SWP use.

PUBLICATIONS

Assists in the yearly preparation and review of Bulletin 132, Management of the State Water Project.