Sacramento 5, California

Dear Sir:

It may seem to you that this office has been dilatory in replying to your letter of September 5, 1951, which is true to a certain extent but this matter has been taken up in our Board meetings and our Attorney and myself have been authorized to come to Sacramento and discuss this matter with you. We would however like to make a definite date as to when we will make this trip. Kindly let me know what date would be convenient for you.

Yours very truly,

Chester C. Taylor
