The recent discovery disputes have burdened the Prosecution Team and slowed the review, but we continue to work diligently towards additional disclosures. I hope to have additional disclosures starting later this week or early next.

Subject: RE: WSID CDO Hearing

Dear Mr. Tauriainen:

Could you please provide a timing update on the production of the remaining documents responsive to the PRA requests, particularly the emails? An initial review of the produced PRA documents illustrates several versions of analyzes that are impossible to understand without the context of the discussions surrounding creation of the documents or instructions related to the work performed. Given the tight timelines, I am already concerned about prejudice resulting from inability to have, review and understand the basis for the Prosecution Team's factual conclusions.

Thank you,

JENNIFER L. SPALETTA
