

]

10 March 2005

State Water Control Board

Re: Trout Unlimited Workshop March 17

We who live on a stream and do work on stream restoration projects do not believe that any standard guidelines will work. Each stream is different and is best handled on a local level.

Blanket provisions will not work. In many cases human use of the streams water genuinely helps habitat and water quality by putting water to good use.

Best regards,

Kellie Meek